We lost one point over our estimates, and finished 2nd equal with Auckland, However, we take the 2nd place medals on the tie-break as we had seven 100s and they had six.

The winners were Caithness with a magnificent score of only 38 points dropped.

Congratulations to Beverley Burnside for shooting 200 for the second year in succession.

We picked up a point on our estimates, but beating last year's winning score wasn't enough and we only managed third behind Cambridgeshire on 19 off (retaining it) and Sussex on 20 off.

Still a pretty good showing.

Well done to everybody - we have won this yet again!
Auckland were second with 87 off and Cardiff 3rd with 114.
Melbourne were the only other entrants, but did not return their cards.

Badges will be distributed when they are received from the NSRA after the end of the challenge period (17th December)
