We've shot very consistently in this for the last three years, being runners-up twice and now third. Last year Caithness raised the bar considerably, and repeated their win this year in raising their record score by three points to 2365.

Auckland were second this time with 2364, only a point behind.

The top English county (Cornwall) was 6th. after Wellington (4th) and Aberdeen (5th)

Well done again to everybody who shot in the team. We won with exactly the same score as last year, picking up four points on our estimates.

The result is closer than last year though, with second-placed Melbourne only five points behind, and Auckalnd a further 25 behind them. Douglas were last of the four entrants with 2808.

Martin Sinclair hasn't dropped a point in this competition for two years!

Winners' badges will be distributed when they are received from the NSRA after the challenge period ends on 10th November.
