Quarter Finals

There were no quarter-finals as there were only four competitors available due to absences. To make up for that, the semis were changed to be two cards each.

For only the second time in fourteen years, the weather prevented competitors from attending. Bill Brown and Hugh Simpson, both former winners, decided not to risk the journey from Surrey and Wick (and back!). Their understandably late withdrawal gave little scope for finding reserves, and there ended up being four gaps (including someone whose car wouldn't start and someone who just forgot all about it). However, we have another new name on the trophy – this time it's Jamie Dummer of Bury, who is a first-time entrant. Jarred Fraser of Halkirk keeps the Plate in Caithness after Hugh's win last year, and Mel Mutch is the first winner of the new Bowl competition. I hope everyone approved of the new Group Stage squadding arrangements, and I think the Bowl which gave more people more shooting was also welcomed.

The Association and I wish to thank Balerno & Currie Rifle Club for the use of their range and especially Alasdair for arranging the catering. I'd also like to thank Anne Hamilton for doing the scoring and John Buchanan for helping to run the shoot on the day and also for presenting the prizes. I hope everybody had an enjoyable afternoon and everyone got home safely. I enjoy running this competition and I look forward to your support again next season.

Bill Hamilton, 2nd March 2004
